

Assam Cricket Museum Inaugurated; Documentary “The Golden Innings – Legacy of Assam Cricket” Released

Guwahati, May 18, 2026:

In a historic and proud moment for cricket in the state, the Assam Cricket Museum was formally inaugurated on Sunday at the 91 Yards Club, ACA Stadium Complex, Barsapara, Guwahati. The occasion also witnessed the official release of a special documentary titled “The Golden Innings – Legacy of Assam Cricket.”

The museum was inaugurated and the documentary officially released by the Hon’ble Chief Minister of Assam, Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma, in the esteemed presence of BCCI Honorary Secretary Shri Devajit Saikia, ACA President and Hon’ble MLA Shri Taranga Gogoi, along with distinguished guests, former cricketers, members of the cricketing fraternity and officials of the Assam Cricket Association.

The documentary “The Golden Innings – Legacy of Assam Cricket” beautifully captures the inspiring journey of cricket in Assam, tracing its evolution through memorable achievements, historic milestones and the invaluable contributions of legendary cricketers, administrators who have shaped the sport in the state over the decades.

Conceived as a tribute to the rich and illustrious legacy of Assam cricket, the Assam Cricket Museum houses an extensive collection of rare memorabilia, historic photographs, vintage cricket equipment, archival records, trophies, mementos and invaluable records associated with the game’s glorious journey in the state. The museum stands as a symbol of pride and remembrance, preserving the heritage of Assam cricket while celebrating the achievements and dedication of those who contributed immensely to its rise.

The museum has been conceptualised as a lasting homage to the pioneers and visionaries who played a significant role in popularising and nurturing the game across Assam. Every exhibit has been carefully curated to preserve the history, culture and spirit of Assam cricket while inspiring future generations of cricketers to carry forward the legacy and strive for greater excellence.

Addressing the gathering, Hon’ble Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma lauded the Assam Cricket Association for its outstanding efforts towards the growth and development of cricket in the state. He stated that Assam cricket has made tremendous progress over the years and today stands as a source of pride and inspiration for aspiring sportspersons across the Northeast. He further remarked that the Assam Cricket Museum would serve as a timeless repository of the state's cricketing heritage and inspire future generations by preserving the memories, achievements and contributions of those associated with the game.

Dr. Sarma also appreciated the initiative of documenting Assam cricket's remarkable journey through "The Golden Innings – Legacy of Assam Cricket," describing it as a significant effort to showcase the struggles, achievements and evolution of cricket in Assam before a wider audience.

Speaking on the occasion, Devajit Saikia highlighted the rapid growth of the cricketing ecosystem in Assam and the Northeast and acknowledged the increasing contribution of the region to Indian cricket. He remarked that initiatives such as the Assam Cricket Museum and the documentary would play a vital role in preserving the rich legacy of the sport while motivating young cricketers to dream big and contribute towards taking Assam cricket to greater heights.

The inauguration ceremony witnessed an overwhelming response and marked yet another significant milestone in the continued rise and recognition of Assam cricket at the national level.
